

Hughenden Primary School

Enrich – Empower – Ignite

END OF YEAR NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents,

As we wrap up a busy and productive term, we wanted to share some highlights! The Year 1 and Year 2 Nativity was a wonderful showcase of talent and festive spirit. Later this week, Hoppers and Foundation will take the stage for their own performances—something we're all looking forward to as well as the Carol Concert taking place Wednesday afternoon!

We also have some staff updates to share with you.

Miss Jackson will be leaving us as she has an exciting opportunity to travel to Australia. Whilst we will be very sad to see her leave, it's an exciting adventure for her. She will be leaving Hughenden on the 23rd January 2026 and I'm sure you will all join us in wishing her well for the future.

Mrs Catlin has accepted a promotion at larger primary school and will also be leaving us in January – we wish her all the best and hope she settles in well to her new role. To reassure you, we are holding LSA interviews this week and will update you with future staff appointments.

Finally, Mrs Brinkworth will be absent from school for the majority of the Spring term as she undergoes planned surgery. Mrs Brittin and Miss Brennan will be in the office as usual to help in any way.

It would be hugely helpful if you can check current Newsletters and the school website for answers to general queries before emailing the office to alleviate pressures on staffing.

Thank you for your continued support throughout this term. From all of us at Hughenden, we wish you a joyful Christmas and a happy, healthy New Year. We look forward to welcoming you back in January for another exciting term! The first day of term will be Tuesday 6th January 2026.

Warmest regards,
Katherine Mann – Headteacher

Poetry Recital

This will take place in the 2nd week back in January. Children will be bringing home a poem to practice over the Christmas holidays to share at our Poetry Recital.

New Football Kit

Thank you to Mrs Peake who has successfully entered and won a competition for a girl's football kit – this has already been put to good use!
